

PINK GRAPEFRUIT MARMALADE

PINK GRAPEFRUIT AND LIMONCELLO MARMALADE

Preparation time: 20 minutes

Cooking time: 2 hours

Makes: 2kg

4 Ruby grapefruit

4 limes

1½ kg jam-setting sugar

½ cup limoncello

1 Use a peeler to remove the grapefruit zest, then cut into fine slices. Halve the grapefruit and limes, then squeeze the juice into a large saucepan. Discard the lime centres. Use a sharp knife to remove the white grapefruit pith and discard. Wrap the remaining grapefruit centres in muslin and add to the saucepan.

2 Pour 1½L water into the saucepan and set over a moderate heat. Simmer rapidly for 1 hour. Remove the muslin bag and allow to cool slightly, then squeeze its liquid into the saucepan. Discard the muslin.

3 Add the sugar and limoncello to the saucepan and bring to a rapid boil for 10 minutes. Test for set on a chilled plate. If set, ladle into sterilised jars and seal while hot. If not yet thick enough, boil for 5 more minutes and re-test.
